3. A declaration of the FT published in PRP, official organ of the PRPc, on 29 September 1950, carried the signatures of Quintero, Villegas, Liqueleña, Agostini, Figueras, Bracca, and Eleazar Salvatierra. Salvatierra, who is Secretary-General of the Sindicato de Operadores Mecánicos Constructores de Caminos y Vías de Comunicación, was shown to be an alternate director and Secretary of Rural Organization of the FT. A letter in Ultimas Noticias on 18 March 1951 showed that the Executive Committee was then composed of Quintero, Bracca, Salvatierra, Agostini, and Martínez.
4. According to Ministry of Labor information, in December 1950 thirty syndicates, with a total membership of 1,921 workers, were affiliated with the FT. The membership at the end of 1949 was reported to be about 1,000. A list of affiliated unions and their present membership is attached.
5. In addition to the affiliated syndicates listed by the Ministry of Labor, other labor unions of unknown strength are claimed as members of the FT. These include:

Sindicato de Trabajadores de la Industria Química: Elías Jenes, Secretary-General.
 Sindicato de Trabajadores Textiles y Similares del Estado Miranda: Guillermina Ansuálde, Secretary-General.
 Sindicato de Campesinos de la Cabrera: Pablo Antonio Barrios, Secretary-General.
 Liga Campesina de Santa Bárbara: Guillermo Rodríguez, Secretary-General.
 Liga Campesina de la Mata Primera: Julian Silva, Secretary-General.
 Liga Campesina de Quebrada de Miguel: Víctor Manauze, Secretary-General.
 Liga Campesina de Corcibo: Marcelino Paz, Secretary-General.
 Liga Campesina de Colon: Juan Simoza, Secretary-General.
 Liga Campesina de Rio Yare: Apolonia Rada, Secretary-General.
 Liga Campesina de los Cajones: Simon Tovar, Secretary-General.

6. A review of PRP files for 1950 reveals that the FT activities for the year included:

8 January	Meeting to review work of 1949.
27 January	Call to support workers of the Hacienda Santo Domingo in a labor dispute.
16 February	Announced solidarity of FT with the Sindicato de Mineros de San Félix de Guayana in its labor dispute.
14 April	Call to support workers' demonstration on 1 May.
1 May	Active participation in May Day demonstration in Caracas.
9 June	Resolution concerning violations of labor law limiting percentage of aliens that may be employed.
16 June	Resolution approving the Stockholm petition against the use of the atomic bomb.
11 August	Announced solidarity with the Sindicato Profesional de Trabajadores del Radio in its dispute with Sydney Ross Company.
13 August	Business meeting.
8 September	Meeting to commemorate the 12th anniversary of the founding of the CTAL.
29 September	Announced solidarity with the Sindicato Profesional de Autobuseros in its defense against attacks by Caracas newspapers.
8 October	Meeting to commemorate the 5th anniversary of the founding of the FTU.

The FT maintains close relations with the Federación de Trabajadores del Estado Anzoátegui, a PRPc federation of various syndicates in that State. This latter group is led by Martín Marval, who frequently visits FT leaders in Caracas. The FT is currently supporting the unified committee of oil-workers' groups in its contract demands.

Manuel Pirela, Secretary-General of the Sindicato de Trabajadores del Jabón, Velas, Grasas, y Similares.
 Esther Mackenzie, Secretary-General of the Sindicato de Trabajadores de la Industria del Perfume.
